O/RE Operating Procedure - Order No. 22

3 November 1950

SUBJECT: Establishment of an Interim Psychological Intelligence Division

1. O/RE has heavy commitments to produce intelligence concerning psychological factors in foreign situations. Pending the approval, recruitment, and organization of a permanent Psychological Intelligence Division, there is hereby established an Interim Psychological Intelligence Division (D/IP).

2. The following personnel are detailed to the Interim Psychological Intelligence Division:

25X1A

[REDACTED] Chief)

3. Each Regional Division will designate a Psychological Intelligence Coordinator who will assist the Interim Psychological Intelligence Division in indoctrinating analysts and guiding the production of such psychological intelligence as it may be necessary to assign to the Regional Divisions. The Coordinators will be designated on the basis of agreement between the AD/RE, the Chief of each Regional Division and the Chief of the Interim Psychological Intelligence Division.

4. A statement of the functions of the Interim Psychological Intelligence Division is attached as Annex A.
